

court, it shall be the duty of the court, the first term, upon motion on behalf of the state, immediately to enter judgment in the name of the state, against such debtor; and execution shall thereupon issue as on other judgments had in such courts; Provided, that if such debtor shall in person or by attorney, desire a trial by jury of any fact, or facts, material and specified, the court shall grant it during said term, and after verdict give judgment and execution as aforesaid; And provided further, that nothing herein shall be held to impair any other remedy, suit or action, which the state might have used, or may prosecute for the recovery of her rights and credits.

Trial of facts.

Saving clause.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the deputy of the attorney-general, or such attorney as may be employed as aforesaid to aid the treasurer of his shore in the adjustment of the accounts of the revenue officers of his county, and to advise him when required, of such allowances as he ought or ought not to make the accountant, for insolvency or non-residents; and that for such service and for his professional services in the collection of the revenue, the treasurers respectively, be authorized to allow and pay to such deputy or other attorney, a commission not exceeding five per centum, of all moneys now or hereafter to be sued for, which shall be paid into the treasury: Provided, that the right of such deputy or other attorney to such compensation shall not be considered as accrued, before the actual payment of the money into the treasury, and that all moneys to be recovered in said suits, shall be paid directly to the treasurer, and to no other person or persons whatever.

Duty of attorneys to advise the treasurer.

Compensation for services of attorney.

Proviso.

CHAPTER 91.

AN ACT to make transcripts from the Books of the Inspectors of Tobacco, Legal Evidence in the Courts of this State.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, copies or transcripts of manifests or other entries, from the books of inspectors or inspector of tobacco, shall be good and admissible evidence in all suits now depending or hereafter to be instituted in the courts of this state: Provided, such transcripts be certified under the hand and seal of the inspector and verified by his or their affidavit, to be true and accurate copies from the original in his or their possession, and contain the entire entries or subject matters in reference to which such transcripts are required.

Copies made legal evidence.

Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the inspector or inspectors, to grant such transcripts, verified as aforesaid, to any person applying therefor, and for such transcripts the inspector or inspectors, shall be entitled to claim and Inspectors shall give copies. Compensation.