CHAPTER 188.

* 1826, ch. 67. AN additional SUPPLEMENT to the ACT,* entitled, an Act to amend the Lottery System.

See notes to the original act, ante page 873.

Prohibition to sell any device intended as a ticket, &c.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no person shall hereafter sell, barter, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or offer to sell, any token or device which may be intended in fact as a substitute for any ticket, or part of a ticket, in any lottery, or any instrument, which may, directly or indirectly, refer to any lottery.

Prohibition to sell any device accepted as a ticket, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That no person shall hereafter sell, barter, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or offer to sell, any token or device which in fact may or shall be accepted by the purchaser thereof, as and for a ticket, or part of a ticket, or as evidence of a right to the avails, in part or in whole, of any ticket in any lottery.

Prohibited from selling any instrument referring to any device, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That no person shall hereafter sell, barter, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or offer to sell, any instrument, which may, directly or indirectly, refer to any device or any other instrument—be the terms of such device or other instrument what they may—which may be intended in fact to evade the lottery system of this state, or the laws thereof, in relation to the said system.

Prohibition to sell any device intended to evade the lottery system.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That no person shall hereafter barter, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, sell, or offer to sell, any instrument, token or device—be the terms thereof what they may—which may in fact be intended to evade the lottery system of this state, or any of the laws thereof, in relation to such system.

Offence defined—penalty.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That any person violating any of the aforesaid provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, as in other criminal cases, shall, for the first offence, be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars; for the second offence, shall be fined as aforesaid, and be confined in the common jail of the county where the conviction may be had, for a term not exceeding six months; and for the third offence shall be fined as aforesaid, and imprisoned for a term not less than one year, nor more than two years.
