

Said bill was then returned to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate returned

The bill entitled an Act to appropriate a sum of money to pay David Fowler for legal services rendered in the Comptroller's Department.

Endorsed "Passed by yeas and nays, with proposed amendments."

Amendments proposed :

Amend by inserting the following as an additional section to the bill, to come in just after section 1 :

Section 2. And be it enacted, That the Comptroller be and he is hereby directed to issue his warrant upon the Treasurer for the sum of $400, to pay the Secretary of the Senate for services and expenses in distributing among and forwarding to the members of the General Assembly, copies of the School Law and Oyster Law, heretofore ordered to be printed, and such other printed matter as has been or may hereafter be ordered to be distributed and forwarded by him during the recess of the Legislature.

Also by striking out the words section 2, and inserting the words section 3.

Amend the title by adding thereto the following :

And the Secretary of the Senate for distributing among and forwarding to the members of the General Assembly copies of laws and other printed matter after the adjournment of the present session.

The amendments were nonconcurrent in, and the bill returned to the Senate.

Mr. Poteet submitted the following message :

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

March 30, 1868.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

We have received from your Honorable Body House bill entitled an Act to appropriate a sum of money to pay David Fowler for legal services in the Comptroller's Department, endorsed "Passed by yeas and nays, with proposed amendments," and decline to concur in said amendments.

We respectfully request your Honorable Body to recede from said amendments.

By order,

M. Y. KIDD,

Chief Clerk.
