

We also respectfully request the presence of your Honorable Body in the Senate Chamber, this day at 2 o'clock, P. M. to witness the inauguration of the Governor elect of Maryland.

By order,
AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

On motion by Mr. Hammond,

It was ordered and adopted,

That a committee composed of one Senator, proceed at once to the examination of the committee clerks, and that the Hon. Jas. T. Earle constitute the committee, as author of the original order.

On motion by Mr. Clarke,

The Senate adjourned until 1.55 P. M., in order to give the committee of arrangements an opportunity of preparing the Chamber for the inauguration of the Governor elect.

At 1.55 P. M. the Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

The hour of two o'clock, P. M., having arrived, the Hon. Oden Bowie, the Governoa elect, accompanied by his Excellency, Governor Swann and the respective committees of the Senate and House of Delegates, appeared in the Senate Chamber and took the seats assigned them.

The Hon., the Speaker, and members of the House of Delegates appeared, whereupon the Governor elect arose and delivered an address in the presence of the General Assembly, the Honorable Judges of the Court of Appeals, and a large concourse of citizens, when the oath of office was administered to the Governor elect by the Hon. James L. Bartol, Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, agreeably to the Constitution.

The Honorable Speaker and members of the House of Delegates, Governor Swann, and the Honorable Governor Bowie having retired,

On motion by Mr. Clarke,

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow 12 o'clock.
