

On motion by Mr. Earle,

The vote by which Senate bill entitled an Act to prohibit the granting of license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer at or near Newark, in Worcester county, in the State of Maryland, was rejected, was reconsidered, and, on his motion, it was ordered that the bill lie on the table.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates delivered the following message :

Which was read.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

January 30, 1868.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

We respectfully propose, with your concurrence, that the select joint committee of seven appointed to visit and examine into the condition of all the benevolent and reformatory institutions which are beneficiaries of the State, be authorized and directed to visit and examine into the condition of all such benevolent and charitable institutions which have applied, or may during this session apply to the General Assembly for relief, or may request said committee to make such visit and examination.

By order,

MILTON Y. KIDD,

Chief Clerk.

Mr. Smith moved that the following message be sent to the House of Delegates :

BY THE SENATE,

January 31, 1868.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We have received your message proposing that the joint committee already appointed to visit and examine into the condition of all the benevolent and reformatory institutions which are beneficiaries of the State, be authorized and directed to visit and examine into the condition of all such benevolent and charitable institutions which have applied, or may during this session apply to the General Assembly for relief, or may request said committee to make such visit and examination, and concur therein.

And on the question being put, the motion was rejected.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates delivered House bill entitled an Act to incorporate the Atlantic Hotel Company of Berlin, Worcester county.

Which was read the first time and referred to the Committee on Corporations.
