NEGATIVE—None.

Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

Mr. Smith of Baltimore city, (the rules being suspended,) submitted the following order :

Ordered, That two thousand copies of the report of the State Immigrant Agent of Maryland be distributed among the members of this House.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Markland, Chairman of the Joint Committee on Public Buildings (the rules being suspended,) submitted the following

REPORT:

To the Honorable,

The General Assembly of Maryland.

The Committees on Public Buildings of the Senate and House of Delegates, to whom was referred for concurrent action, that portion of the Governor's Message, in regard to an Executive Mansion, have in the discharge of that part of their duties relative to the selection of a suitable location, examined several sites which were offered for their inspection, and have unanimously determined upon the lots offered by Mrs. Matilda E. Green, Geo. E. Franklin and James W. Allen, Esquires, forming in the aggregate an entire block, surrounded on every side by streets, as being in every respect the most desirable for the purposes intended, for the following reasons :

Contiguity to the State House, convenient both to the Governor and the people; will protect the State House in a great degree from being in the future marred by improvements of a character not in harmony with it, will extend the area of the grounds now belonging to the State, and which when properly laid out and planted, will form a spot that every Marylander can look upon with pride and satisfaction.
