

grade shall determine to which school pupils shall be admitted.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Kimmel submitted the following amendment :

Chapter 10, section 2, strike out section 2d, and insert, "The School District Board shall have power to suspend and expell pupils for cause.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Hammond offered the following amendment :

Chapter 10, section 1, strike out, and insert, school books shall contain nothing of a sectarian or partizan character.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Compton offered the following amendments to chapter 11.

Section 1. School books shall contain nothing of a sectarian or partizan character.

Section 2. Each Board of County School Commissioners shall purchase the text books for their respective county, after having examined such as may be recommended by the Board of Trustees of the State Normal School, whose duty it is hereby made to present a list of books to said County Boards with their written reasons for such recommendation.

They shall authorize the delivery of books and stationery to the various schools in the county, upon the order of the Commissioner of the Election District, or of the Teacher, endorsed by a Trustee of the School District.

Section 3. On or before the fourth Monday of July in each year, the several School District Boards shall furnish to the Board of County School Commissioners a schedule of books and stationery required for the schools in their respective districts for the ensuing year.

Section 4. The Board of County School Commissioners shall keep an account of the boooks and stationery delivered to the several schools in their respective districts, and file their receipts for the same.

Section 5. The Board of County School Commissioners shall publish annually in all the newspapers in the county, an exhibit of the cost of the text books and the distribution thereof, and the money received therefor from the several school house districts ;

Provided, that no pupil shall be required to pay more than one dollar per quarter for such use, and that any pupil may be exempted from payment in the discretion of the School District Board.