Which was read the second time.

Mr. Grove, from the Committee on Judicial Proceedings, reported

House bill entitled an Act to repeal the Act of 1867, chapter 385, passed March 20, 1867, entitled an Act to provide for the payment of pensions to Maryland soldiers of the war of 1812, and widows of deceased soldiers of 1812

With the following amendments :

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not prevent the payment of pensions now due and payable upon the certificates heretofore granted under the general Pension law of 1867, chapter 385 ; but such certificates shall be void and of no effect for the claim and payment of pensions thereafter.

Section 2, strike out section 2, and insert section 3.

Which were rejected,

And the bill read a second time.

Mr. Walsh, from the Committee on the Executive Mansion, submitted the following REPORT.

To the Honorable,

The General Assembly of Maryland :

The Committee appointed to select and purchase a site for, and construct a mansion for the use of the Governor of Maryland, beg leave to respectfully report that it fully accords with the Joint Committee on Public Buildings, which on the 30th January reported to the Senate and House of Delegates that they had examined the several sites offered to them, and had unanimously determined upon the lots offered by Mrs. M. E. Green, George E. Franklin, and James W. Allen, Esqs.

Your Committee, coinciding in the views of said Joint Committee, respectfully recommend the selection of the lots above mentioned as a suitable site for the Governor's mansion.

THOMAS SWANN,
JOHN CARROLL WALSH,
FERDINAND C. LATROBE,
JOHN W. HAMMOND,
JOHN S. BROWN.
