

CHAPTER 22.

AN ACT entitled "A supplement to an Act passed January session, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, Chapter one hundred and forty-six, entitled 'An Act to incorporate the Gilmore House Company.'"

Change of name. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Act to which this is a supplement be amended by changing the name of the said Company in the said Act provided to be incorporated to the Maryland Hotel Company of Baltimore city.

Incorporators. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That John S. Barry, George G. Presbury, George W. Webb, Samuel M. Shoemaker, William H. Trego, Benjamin M. Hodges, Jr., William Gilmore and Ogden A. Kirkland, be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners in addition to those named in the first section of the Article, to which this is a supplement, to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said Company which the said Commissioners or a majority of them are hereby authorized to take in person or through agents appointed for the purpose, or by opening books for such purpose at such times and places as they may deem proper, and after giving such notice as they deem sufficient.

Capital stock. Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of said Company shall consist of six thousand shares of one hundred dollars each, instead of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars as provided in said Act, and when three thousand five hundred shares thereof shall have been subscribed for, the subscribers, their successors and assigns, shall be invested with all the franchises and privileges conferred by the Act to which this is a supplement.

In force. Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said Act shall be and continue operative and in force in all respects except as herein amended and provided.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from its passage.

Approved February 18, 1868.
