

CHAPTER 25.

AN ACT to make valid certain official acts of John Miller as a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Somerset county.

WHEREAS, John Miller who was appointed one of the Justices of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for Somerset county, by the Governor, received his commission, and was sworn in on the first day of May, 1867, and between that day and the first Monday in May, 1867, performed sundry official acts; and whereas, it has been since discovered that his term of office did not commence until the said first Monday in May, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and doubts exists as to the legality of his official acts as aforesaid performed; now, therefore,

John Miller
as Justice of the Peace.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all the official acts of the said John Miller as a Justice of the Peace, performed between the first day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and the first Monday in May, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, be and they are hereby made valid and legal in all respects, as if said acts had been performed after the said first Monday in May, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

Made valid.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

In force.

Approved February 18, 1868.

CHAPTER 26.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the County Commissioners for Anne Arundel county to levy and refund a certain sum of money to Samuel Redgraves, of said county, for county and school taxes erroneously paid by him.

WHEREAS, it appears by the books of the office of the County Commissioners for the aforesaid county, that Samuel Redgraves was erroneously

Samuel Red-graves erroneously assessed.