

authorized agent, three times the amount of damage done, which may be recovered by suit brought before a Justice of the Peace, or in the Circuit Court for Kent County, as debts of like amount are recovered.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That in the construction of their said branch railroad, the Delaware Railroad Company shall so cross all established public roads as not to impede their use as such, and shall make at least one convenient crossing place from side to side of their track on each farm divided by their railroad if called upon so to do, and shall afterwards maintain such public and private crossing in passable condition. Cross established roads.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That if the said Delaware Railroad Company shall not have completed the branch railroad hereinbefore described, so that trains run over it within two years from the date of the passage of this Act, then this Act shall be null and void; and provided further, that nothing in this Act shall entitle the said Company to any part of the money appropriated by the Act of eighteen hundred and sixty, Chapter three hundred and three, to the Kent County, or Queen Anne's, or Kent County Railroad Companies, but that the sum appropriated by said Act to the aforesaid Companies shall be paid to them respectively. Grant expires.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Company shall hereafter misuse or abuse the privileges hereby granted, the General Assembly shall have power to revoke or annul this charter. And this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. May annul.
In force.

Approved February 26, 1868.