

of money on the assessable property of said county sufficient to erect a bridge over Scotchman's Creek, in the county aforesaid, at a point at or near the lands of A. J. Pennington.

In force.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 26, 1868.

CHAPTER 74.

AN ACT to incorporate the Opake Zinc Company.

Incorporation

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That David L. Bartlett, German H. Hunt, Horace W. Robbins, Thomas M. Smith and Robert Poole, their associates, successors and assigns be, and they are hereby incorporated and created a corporation and body politic by the name of the Opake Zinc Company, and by that name may have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, may make and use a common seal, and alter such other acts in relation to the objects and purposes of their incorporation hereinafter declared and necessary for the exercise of the powers and rights granted to the said corporation by this Act, which any other corporate body may lawfully do, provided such acts be not contrary to law.

Objects and purposes.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the objects and purposes of the said corporation are declared to be the manufacture of paints, and materials and ingredients therefor of any description whatever, at the pleasure of the corporation, and the carrying on the business aforesaid, and for these objects and purposes the said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to purchase and hold alien and dispose of lands and factories in fee simple, or for any other estate, and to erect buildings and other improvements on such lands as may be deemed convenient, and to procure by purchase or other lawful means all kinds of ne-