

CHAPTER 80.

AN ACT to repeal Sections forty and forty-one of the Code of Public Local Laws for Worcester County, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

Repealed and re-enacted.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections forty and forty-one, Article twenty-two, of the Code of Public Local Laws for Worcester County, be and the same are hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Election Districts.

Sec. 40. Worcester County is divided into eight Election Districts, and the said Districts are named and numbered as follows: Coston's District number one, Snow Hill District number two, Berlin District number three, New Ark District number four, St. Martin's District number five, Colbourn's District number six, Atkinson District number seven, Sandy Hill District number eight, and all elections for public officers shall be held in each of said Districts at the place therein established for that purpose, or may hereafter be established by law.

Boundaries.

Sec. 41. The following are the boundaries of Coston's, or Election District number one: commencing at the Pocomoke River at the mouth of Carey's Creek, thence running by and with said creek to Mason's Mills, thence by and with the County Road from Mason's Mills to a place known by the name of the "Sheep House," and thence in a direct course by survey to the line of the State of Virginia; all of the territory west of said boundary line is included in the boundaries of the said Election District number one. For Snow Hill, Election District number two, the boundaries shall be the same as are now established by law, and shall continue to be the limits of said District. For Berlin, Election District number three, the same boundaries as are now established by law shall continue to be the limits of said District number three. For New Ark, Election District number four, the same boundaries as are now established by law shall continue to be the limits of said Dis-
