

this Act, not exceeding thirty dollars, shall be recoverable before any Magistrate in the same manner as debts under ten dollars are recoverable.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors of said Company shall keep a just and full account of all moneys received by their respective toll gathers at their several respective gates on said roads, which account shall be, upon oath or affirmation as the case may be when required, and shall make a dividend of the clear profits and income thereof among the stockholders, which dividend shall be declared half yearly in the months of January and July, and published and paid accordingly. Dividend.

Sec. 18. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for said Company to ask, demand, or receive toll of or from any person or persons going to or returning from church or funeral, or from any person or persons within the lines of whose lands any gate may be erected, from passing from one part to another part of said lands along said road. Not to charge church or funerals.

Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to subscribe for as many shares in the capital stock of said Company as in their judgment they may deem advisable, under the provisions of the fifty-fourth Section of the third Article of the Constitution. Subscribe to capital stock.

Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to allow said Company to issue any note, scrip, token, certificate, or other evidence of debt to be issued as currency. Banking prohibited.

Sec. 21. And be it enacted, That this Act of incorporation shall continue in force for fifty years, and that the General Assembly hereby reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this Act at pleasure, and that it shall take effect from the date of its passage. Continue in force.
Repeal.

Approved March 3, 1868.