

hands and seals, to the Justice who issued the warrant, and that the said finding and decision of the said jurors shall be forthwith returned by the said Justice of the Peace to the Circuit Court for Carroll County aforesaid, and unless good and sufficient cause shall be shown against the said inquisition, it shall be affirmed by said Court at the term next succeeding said return, but if said inquisition should be set aside the said Court may in its discretion, as often as may be necessary, direct another inquisition to be taken as hereinbefore described ; provided, that it shall not be lawful without the consent of the owner or owners, to condemn any land for said road which shall pass through any buildings of such owner or owners.

Make returns.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That on the payment or tender of payment to the owner or owners of land so condemned, of the amount of damages which may have been assessed by said inquisition, after the same shall have been confirmed by said Court, the said Company shall be at liberty to take possession of said land, and construct said road thereon, and do such other acts therein as may be lawfully done. And the said Company is also empowered to erect and make and keep in repair all such bridges or culverts as may be thought necessary, so as not to obstruct, however, the free current of streams or water courses.

Assessed damages.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the said Company having perfected at least two miles of said road, shall have the power to erect on and across said road one toll-gate, and collect and receive from all persons using said road the tolls provided for in Section five of this Act, with power to reduce the rates of toll whenever they see fit ; provided, no toll shall be charged any person for passing over said road from one part of their farm to another part, nor passing to or from a funeral.

Tolls.

Funeral.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the said Company having perfected the said road, it shall and may be lawful for them to appoint such and so many toll-gatherers as they shall think proper, to collect and receive of and from all and every person using the said road, such tolls and rates as the President and Directors may think just and expedient, not exceeding, however, the tolls and rates

Rate of tolls.