

CHAPTER 145.

AN ACT to Incorporate the Wando Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That James A. Henderson, I. Freeman Rasin, Joseph R. Golibart, James Conway, James Horton, and such other persons as with them or in their place shall become stockholders in said Corporation, their successors and assigns, be and are hereby created a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of the "Wando Company, and by that name may sue and be sued, answer and defend in any court of law or of equity, and may ordain and establish such by-laws, rules and regulations as shall appear necessary for conducting the concerns of such Corporation, not contrary to the laws of this State or of the United States, and the same to change, alter and amend as they may deem proper, and may have and use a common seal, and generally may do any act or thing necessary or proper to carry into effect the provisions of this Act, and to promote the designs of the Corporation.

Incorporation

By-laws.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the affairs of the Corporation shall be conducted by a President and Directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders from among themselves, in such manner and at such times as the by-laws may provide, and who shall act in their respective offices until successors shall be chosen, and in case of a vacancy the President and Directors, or a majority of them being a quorum, shall fill the same until the next general election.

President and directors.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Corporation be and is hereby empowered to purchase, manufacture and sell all compounds used for fertilizing the soil, also to dig and mine for and to manufacture the ingredients used in such compounds, and to conduct such general mining, manufacturing and other business as the Directors of the said Corporation may deem proper, and to acquire, have, hold and improve real estate or personal property, from time to time, with the right to sell and dispose of the same as may from time to time be deemed expedient by the Directors of the said Corporation.

Fertilizers.

Real estate.