

So the motion to strike out the enacting clause,
Did not prevail.

Mr. Legg submitted the following amendment:

That the words "State Librarian" be stricken out wherever it occurs, and that the following words be inserted in lieu thereof: the School Commissioners of the respective counties and of the city of Baltimore.

Which was rejected.

The bill was then read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Brown,

The bill was then referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The bill entitled an Act appropriating a sum of money to be expended in removing the remains of the Confederate dead who fell in the battles of South Mountain and Antietam, or died of wounds received in said battles to the Antietam National Cemetery,

Being upon a second reading,

Mr. Wenner submitted the following amendment:

Sec. 1, line 7, insert after the word "Mountain," the word Crampton's Gap.

Which was adopted.

The bill as amended,

Was then read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled an Act to repeal the Act of 1864, chapter 405, relating to the establishment of a uniform system of contracting for public printing,

Was read a second time.

Mr. Brown moved to amend the bill by striking out the 2d section.

The amendment was rejected.

The said bill was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled an Act to incorporate the Opake Zinc Company,
