

ner as small debts are now collected by law in this State.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of said counties shall require each and every Supervisor appointed by them to give bond to the State of Maryland, to be approved by them, in such penalty as they may deem proper, conditioned for the faithful performance by said Supervisors of the duties required of them, which said bond may be put in suit for the benefit of any person suffering by the neglect of the said Supervisor in keeping the roads in his district in proper order; and the said County Commissioners shall have power to fix the price to be paid for laborers on said roads, and to authorize the said Supervisor to hire such number of labors as they may deem necessary, and the said County Commissioners shall pay the said Supervisors such salaries or per diem as they may think just and reasonable.

Bond.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That for the services rendered upon the public road by any tax payer, the Supervisors may issue certificates of indebtedness for such services, and such certificates when signed by the Supervisors and endorsed by the holders thereof, shall be received by tax collectors in payment of county and road taxes.

Services rendered.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the Supervisor may be allowed, in the manner prescribed in this Act, to draw upon the County Commissioners for such sums as they may require to pay at the end of each week for hire of labor, teams, &c., when engaged in repairing roads and bridges, and the County Commissioners shall be authorized and required to meet such drafts out of any unappropriated moneys in the Treasury, or when there are no moneys in the Treasury subject to such drafts, they are authorized and required to pledge the credit of the county, if necessary, to anticipate collections of taxes, for the purpose of providing funds to pay promptly the expenditures for the repairs of roads and bridges by Supervisors.

Meet drafts.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That each Supervisor shall keep accurate accounts of all moneys expended, and of all services rendered upon the roads and bridges and on whose account; and shall make

Keep accounts.