

monthly returns of the same in detail to the County Commissioners, verified by oath, and the County Commissioners shall pay all drafts of Supervisors, except certificates of indebtedness, for work upon roads and bridges.

Put in condition.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That during the months of April, May June, July, August and September, all roads and bridges shall be put in the conditioned required by this Act, and no labor shall be performed upon said roads at any other time of the year, unless the public convenience actually demand it.

Width of roads.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That as speedily as it can be done, not to work too sudden and serious detriment to private interests, and in the discretion of the County Commissioners, all the public roads now opened shall be extended to the width of thirty feet, subject to such regulations as are now prescribed by law for opening of county roads, and at once upon the most important roads wherever it is essential to the repairs of any county road to have it widened, the landholders interested shall, after thirty days' notice by the Supervisor of the road district in which said road lies, remove all obstructions except gates and buildings now erected, which may be allowed to remain, but no new buildings or other obstructions shall hereafter be erected within fifteen feet of the centre of any public road.

Repealed.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners shall have full authority to adopt and enforce all the rules and requirements necessary to carry into full effect all the provisions of this Act, and that all Acts or parts of Acts heretofore passed, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Alter or change.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That if any person shall alter or change any public road in said counties, or cut down, destroy or injure any of the bridges, causeways, boundaries, marks or directions therein or thereon, he shall, on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for the county in which said act was committed, be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, according to the nature and degree of the offence.