

Commissioners shall appoint another in his stead ; and the County Commissioners may at any time demand of the County Treasurer such further bond, with such further security, as in their judgment the interests of the County may require.

When open.

49. The said Treasurer shall keep in the Court House building in Upper Marlborough, his office open from nine o'clock in the forenoon until three o'clock in the afternoon three days in every week, said days to be designated by the County Commissioners ; he shall be entitled to a compensation of one thousand dollars per annum.

Pay over proceeds.

50. He shall receive and keep and pay over according to the directions of law, or the order of the County Commissioners, the proceeds of all county taxes levied in said county, and shall keep full, particular, and correct account of all moneys by him received and paid, and of all matters relating to the duties of his office, together with all vouchers relating thereto. He shall, whenever the County Commissioners may require him so to do, present to them for their inspection, an exact account of all his receipts and expenditures, and a true and faithful exhibit of all moneys that have come into his hands, and of all moneys that have been paid out by him.

Fill vacancy.

51. In case of the death or resignation of said Treasurer at any time during the term for which he was appointed, the County Commissioners shall, within twenty days thereafter, appoint some person to fill said vacancy, who shall take the oath, give the bond, and perform all the duties of the office as hereinbefore prescribed.

Deliver books to successor.

52. The Treasurer shall, at the expiration of his term of office, transfer and deliver to his successor in office all money, books, accounts and papers of every kind connected with his office.

Invite bids.

53. The County Commissioners of Prince George's County shall, in regard to all publishing and printing for said county exclusively, except in cases where the General Law of Maryland otherwise expressly provides, give public notice and invite bids for said printing to be made to them on some day of the levy-laying term in each year, and shall give the said printing or publishing
