

rectors are hereby invested with all the rights and powers necessary to the construction of said road, on the bed of the county road called the Deer Park road, or as nearly as may be practicable so to do, making an artificial bed of stone, not less than sixteen feet in breadth.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors of said company shall have full power to widen the said road, whenever and wherever it shall be found necessary for construction of the same.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That as soon as the said company shall have completed three miles of said road, and so on from time to time a like distance of three miles, they shall give notice to the County Commissioners of Baltimore county, who shall thereupon appoint three judicious and disinterested persons to view and examine the same, and report to the said County Commissioners whether the said road is so far completed in a workmanlike manner, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act; and if their report be in the affirmative, the said County Commissioners shall issue to the President and Directors of said company a license to erect and fix such and so many toll gates upon and across the said road as will be necessary and sufficient to collect the tolls and duties hereinafter granted to the said company from all persons traveling on the same with horses, cattle, wagons, carts and carriages.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said company having completed the road, or so much thereof from time to time as aforesaid, it shall or may be lawful for them to appoint such and so many toll-gatherers as they shall think proper, to collect and receive of and from all and every person or persons using the said road, the tolls and rates hereinafter mentioned, and to stop any person riding, leading or driving any horse, mares or gelding, cattle, sheep, hogs, sulky, chaise, chair, phaeton, coach, coaches, cart, wagon, wain-sled, or other carriage of pleasure or burthen, from passing through the said gate until they shall have paid the same, that is to say: for every space of ten miles in length of the road, the following sum of money, and so on in proportion for any greater or less distance that such person or persons shall use the said road, for any greater or less number of sheep, hogs or cattle, viz: for every score of sheep, ten cents; for every score of hogs, ten cents; for every score of cattle, twenty cents; for every horse, mule, mare or gelding which may pass through the toll gate, whether led or ridden, or whether driven attached to a vehicle of pleasure or of burden, the sum of one cent for every mile, and in that proportion for any greater distance traveled, unless the vehicle drawn shall have a tire over three inches and one-half in width, in which case one-
