

curred in sundry State cases in said court. Henry M. Murray, the sum of two hundred dollars, for indexing laws, passed at January Session, 1867. John Treadway, the sum of twenty-eight dollars and fifty-four cents, to re-emburse him for that amount, overpaid to the State Treasury, as collector of State taxes, in the fourth district of Harford County, for the years 1858 and 1859. E. B. Prettyman, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, the sum of eighty-eight dollars and seventy-seven cents, for costs accrued in sundry State cases in said court. Richard M. Chase, the sum of thirty dollars and twenty-five cents, for plumbing done about the State House. Alfred D. Miller, the sum of forty-six dollars and twenty-nine cents, to reimburse him for costs erroneously paid to the Clerk of the Criminal Court of Baltimore City. James T. Perkins, Philemon Griffith, John Moorehead, Wm. Welsh, Benjamin O'Hara, late Inspectors of Tobacco in Baltimore City, the sum of forty dollars each—two hundred dollars—to reimburse them for amount paid for legal services in testing the right of the Inspectors of Tobacco to charge storage in certain cases. Richard Tydings, the sum of fifty dollars and fifty cents, for repairing stoves about the State House. Eaton G. Horner and Voltaire Randall, the sum of two hundred dollars each—four hundred dollars—for services rendered the State in detecting and bringing to justice, sundry perpetrators of fraudulent bounty claims upon the State Treasury, during the summer of 1866. S. Jackson & Co., the sum of one hundred and twenty-six dollars, for pen-knives furnished for the use of the General Assembly. James E. Tate, assignee of N. H. Green, the sum of four hundred and seventeen dollars and fifty-eight cents, for articles furnished in fitting up the chambers and committee rooms of the Senate and House of Delegates, for the present Session of the General Assembly. John Murphy & Co., the sum of eighteen dollars, for stationery furnished the State Library. Thomas K. Robson, the sum of fifteen dollars and fifty cents, for advertising notice of Constitutional Amendment in the Easton Star, during November, 1866. Hugh Sisson, the sum of seven dollars for marble slab for water-cooler, furnished office of the Clerk of the Court

Issue warrant.