

Issue warrant.

of Appeals. Cushings & Medairy, the sum of one hundred and eighty-five dollars and fifty cents, for stationery furnished the Register of Births, Deaths and Marriages. To the Secretary of the Senate, the sum of one hundred dollars, for services rendered under an order of the House of Delegates, passed at January Session, 1867. James M. Ridout, the sum of five dollars and ninety-two cents, to reimburse him for taxes erroneously paid into the Treasury. Joseph M. Parke, the sum of fifteen dollars and fifty cents, for advertising Constitutional Admendment in the Democratic Advocate, by order of the Governor. Richard F. Mofett, late collector of taxes in Kent County, the sum of twenty-eight dollars and thirty-nine cents, to reimburse him for money erroneously paid into the State Treasury. John E. Bromwell, the sum of thirteen dollars and ninety-five cents, to reimburse him for taxes erroneously paid into the Treasury. A. W. Bateman, the sum of one hundred and forty-eight dollars, for publishing in the Aegis and Intelligencer, Acts of Assembly passed at January Session, 1867. Thomas H. Kemp, the sum of twenty-six dollars and sixty-four cents, for appearance fees in sundry State cases in the Circuit Court for Caroline County. Richard Tydings, the sum of sixty-two dollars and seventy-five cents, for repairing stoves, &c., about the Senate Chamber. William Snowden and John Snowden, executors of Rezin H. Snowden, deceased, the sum of twenty-three dollars and fifty-one cents, to reimburse them for taxes erroneously paid into the Treasury by the said Rezin H. Snowden. Thomas E. Dell & Son, the sum of one hundred and twenty-two dollars, for expenses incurred in distributing report of the Emigration Agent, and G. W. Cruikshank, the sum of fifteen dollars and fifty cents, for advertising Constitutional Amendment in the Cecil Democrat. Abraham Grabb, the sum of twenty-five dollars and fifty-six cents, for taxes erroneously paid into the Treasury. John Murphy & Co., the sum of one thousand and thirty-six dollars and seventy-five cents, for stationery and books furnished the State Library. James Higgins, the sum of ninety-two dollars, for expenses incurred in distributing pamphlets on the resources of Maryland. Thomas H. Moore, the sum of one