CHAPTER 356.

AN ACT to authorize and require Hanson Willison, as late Sheriff of Allegany county, to convey certain real estate situated in Grantsville, in said county, as in said act provided.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Hanson Willison, late Sheriff of Allegany county, on or about the ninth of September, 1862, sold under a writ of Fi. Fa., issued by some Justice of the Peace of said county, an undivided half of a lot of ground adjoining the "John Layman lot" in Grantsville, in said county, to Catherine Fuller, wife of Elijah Fuller; and whereas, the same property was afterwards sold by said Catherine, to a certain Perry Shutz, now deceased, and by him sold to Augustus Bonig, of said county, who has fully paid for, now owns and occupies the same, but has no conveyance therefor; and whereas, all the papers in connection with and authorizing said sale have been lost or mislaid, and cannot now be found, thereby preventing a ratification of said sale, and a conveyance of said property so sold by said Sheriff; and whereas, it is
