

their intention to engage in the profession of teaching within the State, and in case any students shall fail to fulfil the condition upon which they were admitted, they shall forfeit and pay thirty dollars for each session they have attended the Normal School, to be collected as other debts are collected, and to be applied for the benefit of the Normal School. If there be not applicants sufficient from any county or the city, then the Principal of the Normal School may fill all vacancies, by selecting applicants possessing the requisite qualifications, from any other portion of the State, in the proportion aforesaid.

Failing to fulfil conditions upon which admitted.

Additional students.

Sec. 6. In addition to the students admitted from the counties and the city of Baltimore, who shall enjoy all the privileges of the school, and be furnished with the use of the text books free of charge, there may be admitted, in the proportion of one to two of the scholars selected by the county and city Boards, other persons having the requisite qualifications, who shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars per session, and purchase their own text books, and be subject in every respect to the same rules and regulations as the other students; provided, that the number of students sent by the State shall not exceed two hundred, and as long as this number is not reached by the State, or after it shall have been reached by the State, all remaining vacancies may be filled by pay scholars to the full capacity of the school.

Prescribe studies.

Sec. 7. The Board of Trustees of the State Normal School shall prescribe the course of study, and supervise the school in every particular not provided for in this law; they shall make provision for model and experimental Primary and Grammar Schools under qualified teachers, in which the student of the Normal School shall have opportunity to practice the modes of instruction and discipline inculcated in the Normal School. The salary of the teachers of the model and experimental schools shall be paid in part from the tuition fees derived from the pupils of said model schools.

Salaries.

Sec. 8. The annual sum of eight thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for the support of the Normal School, to be paid in quarterly instalments
