

establish at some convenient and central location a High School or other advanced school, which shall be open to the youth of both counties.

Sec. 3. Such High School shall be governed by a Board composed of the several Boards of the counties establishing said school, and shall be subject to their visitation, and such Board shall be styled the High School Board of ..... counties.

High Schools—how governed.

Sec. 4. The funds for suitable buildings for High School shall be provided by the Boards of County School Commissioners to be paid to, and be applied by the said High School Board; provided, however, that before proceeding to locate the High School, the High School Board shall advertise and receive offers from the citizens of any district or town, who may be inclined to provide suitable buildings, apparatus, &c., in order to secure the location of the High School in their neighborhood.

Funds for building.

Sec. 5. These buildings shall be kept in repair by, and the title thereof be vested in the High School Board of ..... counties. In all particulars concerning text books, course of study and mode of discipline, the High School shall be under the control of the State Board of Education.

Kept in repair.

Sec. 6. Each High School shall be visited and examined annually by the Principal of the State Normal School or a professor thereof; such High School shall also be visited at least once each school term, by the President of the High School Board of ..... counties who shall report quarterly to the Board the result of his observations.

High School examined.

Sec. 7. The Principal of each High School shall report annually to the High School Board of ..... counties.

Report.

Sec. 8. If practicable, military tactics may form a department in every High School and College of the State.

Military.

Sec. 9. Whenever the joint High School Board, or the joint advanced School Board of any two or more counties or school house districts is composed of six, eight, ten, or any other even number of persons, the High School Board shall appoint one additional member.

Joint Board.