

ture, pass orders requiring the said corporation within a time to be thereby fixed, to remedy the grievance complained of, and may suspend the passage of the final decree of forfeiture until the time so fixed, and may afterwards refuse to pass such decree if the grievance shall have been remedied by the time so fixed.

File certificate.

Sec. 182. And be it enacted, That the petition for forfeiture, hereinbefore mentioned, shall be filed in the Circuit Court for the county in which the certificate of incorporation of said corporation was filed, if said corporation shall have been incorporated under the laws requiring the filing of such certificate, and in the case of all other corporations such petition shall be filed in the county in which either the principal office of said corporation was last located, or in which the principal business of said corporation was last carried on; but if the corporation to be proceeded against has filed the certificate of incorporation in Baltimore city, or if not incorporated under the laws requiring such certificate to be filed, the said corporation had its principal office last in said city, or had there last carried on its principal business, then and in such cases the said petition shall be filed in the Superior Court of Baltimore city.

Appeal.

Sec. 183. And be it enacted, That from any judgment or determination of the court had on petitions filed for forfeiture under this Article, either party may appeal to the Court of Appeals, subject to such regulations and provisions relating to the taking and prosecution of said appeals as shall be prescribed by the said Court of Appeals.

Power of Governor.

Sec. 184. And be it enacted, That the Governor of this State shall have power, upon application in writing made to him by any citizen thereof, in the exercise of his own discretion, to direct the Attorney General, or State's Attorney for any county in this State, or for the city of Baltimore, to file a bill in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, or in the Circuit Court of any county, in the name of the State, against any corporation incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of restraining; by injunction, any such corporation from assuming or exercising any franchise, liberty or privilege, or transacting any business not allowed
