Guy,	Blake,

Said resolutions were then sent to the Senate.

The bill entitled an Act to repeal sections seventy-four, seventy-five, seventy-six, seventy-seven and seventy-eight of the Code of Public General Laws, as amended by the Act of Assembly, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, chapter one hundred and eighty-seven, and to enact the following as a substitute therefor,

Being upon a third reading,

Mr. Jones, (the rules being suspended by unanimous consent,) submitted the following amendment:

In line 3, section 1, insert after the word "of," the words "Article seventy-five of," and after the word "laws," in same line, the words "entitled pleadings, practice and process, sub-title removal of causes."

Which was adopted.

The bill as amended,

Was then ordered to be engrossed,

And having been engrossed,

Was read a third time and passed by yeas and nays as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.
