The question recurring upon the adoption of the amendment submitted by Mr. Chaisty,

Mr. Montague moved the previous question.

Which was sustained.

The question then being, "shall the previous question be now put?"

It was decided in the affirmative.

The question then recurring upon the adoption of the amendment,

Mr. Nicolai demanded the yeas and nays.

The hour of 12 o'clock M. having arrived,

In conformity with the act of Congress, July, 1866, chapter 245, entitled "An Act to regulate the times and manner of holding elections for Senators in Congress," the Senators of Maryland appeared in the hall of the House, and the two Bodies, conjointly, proceeded to hold an election for a Senator in the Congress of the United States, the Hon. Philip Francis Thomas, Senator elect, having been refused a seat in that body by the said United States Senate.

The roll of Senators and Members of the House of Delegates being called, it appeared, by a viva voce vote of each Senator and Member present, (a majority of all the members elected to both Houses being present, and voting,) that on the
