FOR JAMES T. EARLE.—Mr. Bond, of B. city—I.

Whereupon, it appearing that the Hon. George Vickers ad received a majority of all the votes cast, (a majority of all the members elected to both Houses, being present and voting,) the Speaker of the House of Delegates, as President of the Joint Assembly, declared the Honorable George Vickers duly elected Senator of the United States, in place of the Hon. Philip Francis Thomas, who had been refused a seat in that body, to which he had been elected for the term of six years, from the 4th day of March, 1867.

The House then resumed the consideration of the unfinished business of the session.

The question recurring upon the demand for the yeas and nays, upon

The adoption of the amendment submitted by Mr. Chaisty strike out the word "ten," and insert the word "five."

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows :
