So the motion to strike out the enacting clause did not prevail.

The bill as amended was then read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

March 6, 1868.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We propose with the concurrence of your Honorable Body to appoint a joint special committee of five, two from the Senate and three on the part of the House of Delegates, to notify the Hon. Geo. Vickers that he has been this day duly elected to represent this State in the United States Senate for the unexpired time for which the Hon. P. F. Thomas was elected and refused admission by the United States Senate.

We have appointed on the part of the Senate Committee Messrs. Maddox and Welch.

By order,

AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY, Secretary.

Which was read.

Mr. Smith, of Worcester, submitted the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

March 6, 1868.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received your communication soliciting the concurrence of this House in the appointment of a joint special committee to notify the Hon. Geo. Vickers that he has been this day elected to represent this State in the United States Senate for the unexpired term for which Hon. P. F. Thomas
