Add an additional section to be known as

SEC. 14. Be it enacted, That if any wagon or car load of lime shall be culled of the lumps by any dealer or employees, and sold separately, except by a change of certificate, the party or parties so offending shall be fined the sum of ten dollars for each and every offense.

Which were severally read and adopted.

Amendment proposed by the Committee :

Amend section 1, line 3, strike out after the word "appoint" to the word, two; line 4, and insert the word "annually."

Which was rejected.

Mr. Blake submitted the following amendment :

Section 5. And be it enacted, That every dealer in lime shall keep all lime of the several qualities herein mentioned and established separate, and in the vending thereof, shall correctly state to the purchaser the quality of the lime offered for sale; and every dealer who shall violate this section, shall be liable to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, to be recovered before any Justice of the Peace, as other fines, and to be applied for the benefit of the public schools of the city of Baltimore.

Which was adopted.

The bill as amended,

Was then read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading,

Mr. Legg, Chairman of the select committee on Oysters and the Oyster Law, reported favorably

A bill entitled an Act to repeal section 3, Article 41, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Head of the Bay," and to re-enact the same so as to read as follows.

Which was read a first time.

The Chair laid before the House the following report from Hon. Isaac D. Jones, Attorney General, in response to an order of the House.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
BALTIMORE, March 19, 1868.

To the Honorable, the

House of Delegates of Maryland :

The order adopted by your body on the 4th inst., did not
