

6 George 1.—A. D. 1719.

CHAP. 18. An act for the better securing certain powers and privileges, intended to be granted by his majesty, by two charters for assurance of ships, &c.

This statute was declared to extend to all the colonies, &c. in America, by 14 George 2, Ch. 37.

CHAP. 23. An act for the further preventing robbery, burglary and other felonies, and for the more effectual transportation of felons. (Part.)

See the note on 4 George 1, Ch. 11.

8 George 1.—A. D. 1721.

CHAP. 6. An act for granting the people called quakers, such forms of affirmation or declaration, as may remove the difficulties which many of them lie under.

See the note on 7 and 8 W. 3, Ch. 34.

CHAP. 12. An act giving further encouragement for the importation of naval stores, &c.

This statute related to importations from the colonies.

CHAP. 18. An act to prevent the clandestine running of goods, &c. (Part.)

The 22d section, relating to copper ore, was in force in the province.

CHAP. 24. An act for the more effectual suppression of piracy.

See the note on 28 Henry 8, Ch. 15. The last section of this statute, declared, that it should extend to all his majesty's dominions in Asia, Africa and America, and should be taken as a public act.

11 George 1.—A. D. 1724.

CHAP. 7. An act for rating such unrated goods and merchandize, as are usually imported into this kingdom, &c.

See the note on 12 Charles 2, Ch. 4.

12 George 1.—A. D. 1725.

CHAP. 26. An act for repealing the duty laid upon snuff.

This statute appears to have had some relation to the trade with the province.
