

was sent, and if sent to the city of Baltimore, returnable to the Superior Court of said city, and there shall be sent therewith a copy of the docket entries, upon which the court may proceed on said execution by renewal or otherwise in the same manner as if said execution had issued on a judgment rendered in said court, and an attachment on judgment or decree shall be regarded as an execution in the meaning of this section.

6. Every clerk shall, on or before the first Monday of June and first Monday of December in each year, transmit to the Comptroller a list of all executions issued by the court of which he is clerk, for fines, penalties or forfeitures, and also a list of the fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by his court, and a list and account under oath of all public money received by him, which lists shall contain the names of the parties, the amount of the fines, penalties and forfeitures, and to whom payable, with the costs thereon, and shall embrace all cases not included in former lists returned by him, and shall show from whom and on what account public money has been received.

7. Each clerk shall semi-annually, on the first Monday of June and first Monday of December, pay to the Treasurer all public money which he may have received, and on his failure to do so within thirty days thereafter, his bond may be put in suit, for the use of the State, in which suit recovery shall be had for the amount appearing to be due the State, with interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, from the first Monday in June and the first Monday in December respectively; and a failure on the part of any clerk to make such payment shall amount to a forfeiture of the commissions to which he would otherwise be entitled, and any recovery on the bond of a clerk for the non-payment of public money received by him shall be evidence of a misdemeanor in office, for which, upon conviction, he may be removed.

8. Each clerk shall be entitled to such commissions on all money paid by him into the treasury, as is allowed by the law regulating their fees.

9. Every clerk, (except the clerk of the Court of Appeals,) the emoluments of whose office shall exceed the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars in any one year, after deducting therefrom the necessary expenses incident to his office for the same period, shall pay the excess to the Treasurer.
