

20. If any person applies for a copy of the record of a judgment or decree, in any case where the judgment or decree is not required by law to be recorded, the clerk shall make and certify a copy of the same from the papers, minutes and docket entries of such case, which shall be as available as a regular transcript of a recorded judgment or decree.

21. The clerk of any court shall, upon application during the vacation of said court, enter an appeal from the judgment, order or decree of said court to the Court of Appeals.

22. The clerks may approve any appeal bond, writ of error bond, bond for removal of proceedings by writ of certiorari, injunction bond, trustee's bond or receiver's bond, to be filed in their respective courts.

23*. The clerks of the Circuit Courts in the several counties, of the Superior Court of Baltimore city and the Court of Common Pleas shall have the power and jurisdiction to take supersedeas of judgments and decrees in their respective courts, as a justice of the peace has by law, and the supersedeas as taken shall have the same effect as if taken by a justice of the peace; and every security in a supersedeas of a judgment rendered in the respective courts, and superseded before the clerks of said courts, shall sign the same, or if they cannot write, make their marks, to be attested by the clerk; and the several clerks shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents for each supersedeas.

24*. It shall be the duty of the clerks of the respective courts and of the justices of the peace, in taking the supersedeas of any judgment, to accept no party as a superseder, unless satisfied that said party is worth in real or personal estate, over and above his actual debts, the full amount of the judgment proposed to be superseded.

25*. It shall not be lawful for the justices of the peace of the city of Baltimore to take supersedeas of any judgment recovered after the seventh day of February eighteen hundred and sixty, in the Court of Common Pleas, or the Superior Court of Baltimore city, but such supersedeas shall be taken by the clerks of said courts respectively.

26. The clerks of the several Circuit Courts for the counties and the city of Baltimore, the clerk of the Superior Court of
