

troller for his approval; and if the Comptroller shall approve said bond and securities, he shall certify the same to the judge of said court, and such certificate shall be recorded in said court.

68. The said clerk shall, every second year, renew his said bond in the same penalty, and with securities to be certified and approved as hereinbefore directed.

69. If the clerk of said court shall fail to give bond as herein directed, within thirty days after he has received his commission, or shall fail to give a new bond within thirty days after the expiration of two years from the date of the bond previously given, it shall be regarded as a misdemeanor in office, and upon conviction thereof, he shall be removed.

70. No deputy or assistant of such clerk shall become a surety on his official bond.

CLERK OF THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

71. The clerk of the Court of Common Pleas shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties now required, or which may hereafter be required of him by law, with sufficient securities—the sufficiency of which securities shall be certified by the judge of said court, and approved by the Comptroller, as herein directed.

72. The provisions contained in the sections of this article from section sixty-seven to section seventy, both inclusive, relating to the bonds to be given by the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, and the penalties and forfeitures for not giving the same, shall be applicable to the bonds to be given by the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, in the same manner as if they were herein repeated.

73. All the provisions herein contained relating to the obtaining of blank licenses, granting the same and returning an account thereof to the Comptroller by the clerks of the Circuit Courts for the counties, shall apply to the clerk of the court of Common Pleas as fully as if the same were herein repeated.
