

18. The Comptroller shall not sign any warrant in blank.

19. If any clerk, register, notary public, auctioneer, contractor, inspector or receiver of the public moneys other than collectors of the direct tax, shall fail to account for and pay over to the Treasurer all public monies in his hands for thirty days after the time required by law, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller to direct the State's Attorney in the county or city where such defaulter may be, to institute a suit upon the bond of such defaulter, and to prosecute the same with diligence and effect, and in no case shall he fail to institute suit on the bond of every collector of the taxes who shall be in default or arrear for more than one year.

20. In case of the institution of any suit or action against a collector or other officer charged with the collection or receipt of moneys belonging to the State, or against the official bond of such collector or other officer, a statement of the account of such collector or other officer, certified and signed by the Comptroller, shall be taken and received as prima facie evidence of the debt or amount therein stated to be due.

21. The Comptroller shall see that the provisions requiring the publication by the banks and other incorporated moneyed institutions of unclaimed dividends and deposits shall be complied with.

22. He shall cause to be printed in the forms prescribed by law or usage, blank marriage licenses, traders' licenses, ordinary licenses, non-resident licenses, brokers' licenses, hawkers' and pedlars' licenses, exhibition licenses, billiard-table licenses, wood hucksters' licenses, and all other licenses issued by the clerks of the courts of this State, and now authorized by law, with the several rates, grades and descriptions thereof, with reference to the character and object of said licenses, the sum to be paid therefor, and the fractional part of the year, not less than one month or any number of months for which the same may be issued, and upon the requisition of the clerks of the several Circuit Courts, and of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore, shall forthwith deliver to the said clerks, the number and description of licenses required by them for one year, or the fractional parts of the year, terminating on the thirtieth of April then next ensuing, and shall take a receipt from the several clerks therefor.
