

23. He shall have inserted, in all ordinary licenses, a clause specially excepting the Sabbath day from the operation of said license.

24. He shall procure a stamp, with such design and description as in his judgment shall seem best adapted to its purpose, which stamp shall be used on all licenses issued from his office.

25. He shall, after each regular session of the General Assembly, furnish the printer of the laws with an accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public money for the fiscal year; and it shall be the duty of the said printer to attach said statement to and publish the same with the laws passed by the General Assembly at such sessions.

ARTICLE XXIII.

Constables.

SEC. 1. Every constable elected shall, within thirty days after his commission has been received by the clerk of the Circuit Court of his county, or the Superior Court of Baltimore city if in the city of Baltimore, make the declaration of religious belief and take and subscribe the oaths prescribed by the Constitution before said clerk.

2. Every constable shall also, before he acts as such, give bond to the State of Maryland, with good and sufficient security to be approved by the county commissioners of the county, or the judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, in the penalty of two thousand dollars' conditioned "that the said constable shall well and faithfully execute the same office in all things appertaining thereto, and shall also well and truly account for all moneys placed in his hands for collection, or received by him on judgment, and shall well and truly pay over the same;" and the said bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for the county, or of the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, and a copy thereof under the seal of the said court shall be good evidence to prove the execution of such bond in any court of this State.
