

22. The last preceding section shall not preclude any creditor, from instituting suit upon any other bond of the constable, if neglect, default or breach of duty shall arise under or during the official action of the constable under such bond.

23. Where any constable shall receive money and shall fail to pay the same to the party to whom due, or to his executors, administrators or assigns, any justice on application of the party, his executors, administrators or assigns, may issue a summons against the constable for the money by him received, and may direct said summons to any constable or other person willing to serve the same, and on return of such summons the justice shall proceed as in other cases.

24. Upon a judgment rendered under the last preceding section, the constable shall not be allowed a supersedeas, but execution may issue forthwith.

POLICE DUTIES OF CONSTABLES.

25. Each constable shall be sworn up at every Circuit Court of the county, or Criminal Court of Baltimore, to the grand jury.

26. They shall visit all places within their respective cities or counties where it is suspected gaming tables are kept, and give information of all violations of law to the next Circuit Court or Criminal Court of their county or city.

27. They shall require any person carrying goods from place to place for sale to produce a license, and in case of refusal or neglect to produce the same, shall carry such person before a justice, who shall take recognizance from him with security to appear at the next Circuit Court of the county or Criminal Court of Baltimore city.

28. They shall make strict inquiry, and call on all persons who do not reside in their respective counties or city, and who are retailing spirituous liquors, for their license, and upon their refusal to produce the same, shall give information to some justice of the peace, under the penalty of ten dollars, to be recovered before a justice of the peace.