

6. The said coroner or justice, in the account of expenses rendered to the county commissioners, or mayor and city council, for holding such inquest, shall include such sum for the said physician as the said coroner, or justice, and jurors shall deem just, not less than five or more than ten dollars, which sum shall, with the other expenses of the inquest, be paid by the county or city.

7. Whenever it shall be necessary for a coroner to bury any deceased person, he shall provide a coffin and decently bury him, and the county commissioners of the county where the person shall have been found, or the mayor and city council of Baltimore, if he shall have been found in said city, shall make such allowance to said coroner as they may deem just and reasonable therefor, to be levied and paid as other county or city charges.

8. In all cases where the sheriff is interested, or nearly related to any of the parties, or otherwise disqualified to act, all process shall be issued to the coroner, if there be one in the county or city qualified to act in such case, who shall perform all the duties of such disqualified sheriff, and be subject to the same liabilities and be proceeded against in the same manner, and shall have the same rights and remedies.

ARTICLE XXVI.

Corporations.

SEC. 1. Whenever five or more stockholders of any private corporation created by this State, at least thirty days before an election for managers, directors or other officers of such corporation elected by the stockholders thereof, shall give notice in writing of their intention to canvass the votes which may be given at the next election thereof, which notice shall be delivered at the usual place of business of such corporation, to the president, cashier, secretary, treasurer, director, or other principal manager of such company, it shall be the duty of the officer receiving such notice immediately to communicate the same by mail to all the stockholders of such corporation living in the State.
