

laid down in any plat made by authority of any city or town, to be opened as a street or road.

26. Every burial lot sold or conveyed in such cemetery, shall be held by the proprietors thereof for the sole purpose of sepulture, and for none other, and shall not in any manner be subject to attachment or execution for debt, or affected by the insolvent laws of the State; but the estate of the owner or owners in their respective lots shall descend as real estate to heirs, may be devised by will, or may be disposed of by the owner by sale, with the approval of the president and managers of the corporation.

27. A certificate (under seal of the corporation) of the ownership of any lot sold and conveyed as aforesaid, shall in all respects have the same effect as any conveyance from such corporation of said lot would have if executed, acknowledged and recorded as conveyances of real estate are by the laws of this State required to be.

28. Any person who shall wilfully destroy, mutilate, deface, injure or remove any tomb, monument, grave-stone, or other structure placed in said cemetery, or any fence, railing or other work for the protection or ornament of said cemetery, or shall wilfully destroy, cut, break or remove any tree, plant or shrub, within its limits, or who shall shoot or discharge any fire-arms within said limits, shall be considered as guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace, shall be punished by fine, in the discretion of the justice, according to the aggravation of the offence, not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

29. The managers of any company or corporation organized under the provisions of the twentieth section of this article, shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts due from said company or corporation, contracted while they are managers; Provided, said debts are payable within one year from the time they shall have been contracted; and that suit for the collection of the same shall be brought within one year after the debt shall become due and payable.
