

11. In case of the insolvency of any agent or factor, the owner of the goods, wares or merchandise so pledged and redeemed as provided in the last preceding section, shall be held to have discharged pro tanto the debt due by him to the estate of such insolvent.

12. No consignment of agricultural productions whatever, by the grower or producer or other owner, to any commission merchant, factor, agent or other bailee or consignee for the purpose of sale for the use and benefit of such grower, producer or other owner, shall be deemed or taken to vest in such commission merchant, agent, factor or other bailee or consignee, any other title or right to such articles consigned than the special right or title to sell and deliver the same to a fair and bona fide purchaser for a valuable consideration.

13. Nothing contained in this article shall deprive any principal or owner of goods, wares or merchandise of any remedy at law or in equity, which he might have against his agent or factor on any matter or contract between them, or for the violation of any engagement, duty or debt, for which such agent or factor has heretofore been liable at law and in equity, subject, nevertheless, to the right of such agent or factor to be allowed the benefit of any payments of any debt or damages received and paid from and on such contracts as aforesaid by any other person or body corporate.

14. Every mortgage, pledge, deposit or other disposal by said commission merchant, factor, agent, bailee or consignee of such agricultural productions thus consigned for sale alone, unless with the consent of the grower, producer or other owner, expressly given, shall be null and void, and no title to said articles or any of them shall pass to the person receiving the same, but the title thereto shall remain in the grower, producer or other consignor thereof as if no such mortgage, pledge, deposit or other disposal had been made.

15. Whenever any commission merchant, factor, agent or other consignee, shall be discharged under the insolvent laws of this State, no agricultural produce which may have been consigned to him for sale, and which may be on hand at the time of his application and discharge not sold to a fair and bona fide purchaser for a valuable consideration, shall pass to the trustee of said insolvent, or be in any wise answerable for his debts, but all
