

23. If such goods and chattels shall thereafter come to the hands of the defendant as administrator, or into the hands of any other person who may have authority to administer the goods of the deceased, the plaintiff may issue on the said judgment a writ of scire facias, suggesting the coming of assets to the hands of the administrator, liable to the payment of the residue of his debt or demand, with interest as aforesaid, so due, upon which, if the defendant contests the same, there shall be a trial by jury, as provided in section twenty aforesaid.

COURT OF APPEALS.

24. Any judge of the Court of Appeals who shall be connected with any party to a cause by consanguinity or by affinity, within the fourth degree, counting down from the common ancestor to the more remote, shall be disqualified from sitting in such cause.

25. No judge of the Court of Appeals shall be deemed to have abandoned his residence in the judicial district for which he shall have been elected, by reason of his residence in Annapolis during the term for which he may have been elected, unless he shall signify his intention so to abandon his residence in his said district by voting in the city of Annapolis.

26. Any one of the judges of the Court of Appeals, in the absence of the others, may adjourn the court until the attendance of the other judges can be had; and in the absence of all the judges, the clerk may adjourn the court from day to day until a judge is present.

27. Any one of the judges may take the return of process, and may order the issuing of the same, and may enter continuances by consent of the parties.

28. No action in the Court of Appeals shall continue longer than the end of the fourth term after the same shall have been instituted, unless by consent of the parties.

29. Upon a writ of diminution issued by the Court of Appeals to any inferior court, such court shall certify and return only such parts of the record or proceedings as shall have been omitted in the transcript or transcripts before transmitted to the Court of Appeals.
