

court may bind such child or children to any trade or handicraft; females until the age of sixteen, and males until the age of twenty-one years.

69. If any person, who shall be summoned as a witness to said court, shall fail to attend as required in said summons, he shall be fined by said court in its discretion, not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars.

70. In all criminal cases in the said court, in which bail shall be forfeited, the person or persons who shall have entered into such recognizance or recognizances for the appearance of any traverser or prisoner, shall be liable forthwith to an attachment for contempt for the non-appearance of the said party, which attachment shall be issued by the court in which an indictment against said traverser or prisoner is pending, at the instance of the attorney prosecuting therein.

71. In all cases in which bail is forfeited, the court before which the indictment is pending may order, on the return of the attachment, the person or persons attached to stand committed until the amount of the recognizance is fully paid and satisfied, or may order said person or persons to be discharged upon the payment of such lesser sum as it shall, in its discretion, deem proper; Provided, such sum be not less than the amount of the costs which may have accrued in the case up to the time of passing such order.

SPECIAL JUDGES.

72. If the judge of any court (except the Court of Appeals) is connected with a party in controversy by consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree, counting down from the common ancestor to the more remote, he shall be disqualified from sitting in such cause, nor shall he sit in any cause where in his opinion it would be improper for him to sit by reason of his relation to or connection with any of the parties to such cause.

73. Where any judge except a judge of the Court of Appeals, shall be disqualified under the preceding section, or under the Constitution, a judge shall be appointed in his place as herein provided.
