

74. Whenever a judge, except a judge of the Court of Appeals, shall be disqualified by any of the causes aforesaid from sitting in any case civil or criminal pending in his court, the clerk of the court, unless the parties to such cause shall by consent appoint some person to try the same before the next term after the announcement of the disqualification of the judge, shall notify the judge of any other circuit or of the city of Baltimore, who shall forthwith appoint a proper person to try such cause.

75. Whenever a judge, except judges of the Court of Appeals, shall be unable by reason of sickness or any other cause to sit in any cause or causes civil or criminal pending in his court, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to certify to some other judge that the judge thereof is unable to sit, and he shall state in his certificate the cause of the inability to sit, and any other circuit judge or any judge of the city of Baltimore, on the receipt of such certificate, shall appoint a judge to try all the cases in said court which by the rules thereof are ready for trial, except the cases in which the parties thereto by consent have appointed or may appoint another judge; and any judge appointed as aforesaid, shall have full power to summon grand or petit jurors, and to do all things necessary to the trial of such causes, whether civil or criminal.

76. If a special judge shall die, resign, or refuse to act, another may be appointed in his place, and appointments may be made until a judge shall be procured who will act.

77. In all cases in which the State shall be a party to a cause, it shall be lawful for the State's Attorney for the county, or city as the case may be, in which such case shall be for trial, to consent, for and on behalf of the State, to the appointment of a proper person to try such cause.

78. If either of the judges of the courts in Baltimore city having equity jurisdiction, shall be disqualified to sit in a case, the clerk of the court where the case is pending, with the consent of the parties, shall transmit all the papers in the case, with a copy of the docket entries, to the other court, the judge whereof shall try the case as if it had been instituted in his court.
