

106. If any person shall wilfully break the seal of any letter or package belonging to the public, he shall, on conviction thereof, be fined two hundred dollars, one-half to the informer and the other half to the State.

LOTTERIES.

107. No person shall draw any lottery or sell any lottery ticket in this State, nor shall any person sell what are called policies, certificates, or any thing by which the vendor or other person promises or guarantees that any particular number, character, ticket or certificate shall in any event or on the happening of any contingency entitle the purchaser or holder to receive money, property or evidences of debt.

108. All devices and contrivances designed to evade the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed as offences against it.

109*. Every person, his aiders and abettors, offending against any of the provisions of the two preceding sections, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined for each offence any sum in the discretion of the court, not less than two hundred dollars nor exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not less than three nor more than twelve months, or may be both fined and imprisoned as aforesaid.

110*. In addition to the penalties prescribed in the preceding section, any person who may give money or any other thing for any lottery ticket, certificate or any other device by which the vendor promises that he or any other person will pay or deliver to the purchaser any money, property or evidence of debt, on the happening of any contingency in the nature of a lottery, such person so giving may recover, as small debts are recoverable, from the person to whom he gave the same, or his aiders or abettors, the sum of fifty dollars for every lottery ticket, certificate or other device in the nature thereof so purchased or obtained by him, and such person shall be a competent witness to prove the giving of the money or other thing.

111*. If any person shall keep any house, office or other place for the purpose of selling or bartering any lottery ticket, policy,
