

19. If any person shall vote twice at one election, he shall be liable to a presentment in the Circuit Court for the county in which he may reside, and may be fined not exceeding forty dollars, and imprisoned not exceeding one month, in the discretion of the court. This section not to apply to the city of Baltimore where a different penalty is prescribed by the local law.

20*. If any person shall remove into any election precinct in the city of Baltimore, not for the purpose of acquiring a bona fide residence therein, but for the purpose of voting therein at an approaching election, or shall vote or offer to vote in any election district or precinct in which he does not reside, (except in the case provided for in the first Article of the Constitution,) or shall at the same election vote in more than one election district or precinct, or shall vote or offer to vote in any name not his own, or in the place of any other person of the same name, or shall vote in any county or city in which he does not reside, such person, if the offence be committed in a county, shall be punished by fine not less than ten nor exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail for thirty days, and if the offence be committed in the city of Baltimore, he shall be punished as prescribed by the local law of Baltimore city.

21. The judges of election may administer an oath in any inquiry they may deem necessary to be made touching the right of any person offering to vote, and if any person shall swear falsely in relation thereto, he shall, upon conviction thereof, suffer the pains and penalties of perjury.

22. It shall be the special duty of the judges of election to give information to the respective State's Attorneys, of all infractions of this article when discovered by them, under the penalty of twenty dollars for neglect in each case.

23. If any candidate, or other person or persons, shall practise force and violence, with intent to influence unduly, or to overawe, intercept or hinder any election, he shall, on conviction thereof in any court of criminal jurisdiction in the county where the offence was committed, suffer such fine, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, and such imprisonment, not exceeding fifty days, as the court shall adjudge. This section not to apply to the city of Baltimore where a different penalty is prescribed by the local law of said city.
