

53. A copy of any of the books, papers, entries or proceedings in the custody of or in the office of the Secretary of State under his seal of office, shall be evidence.

54. A copy of any of the books, papers, entries and proceedings of the Treasury attested by the Treasurer, shall be evidence.

55. A copy of any of the books, papers, entries and proceedings belonging to the office of the Comptroller attested by the Comptroller, shall be evidence.

56. Copies or transcripts of manifests or other entries from the books of inspectors of tobacco, certified under the hand and seal of the inspector and verified by his affidavit to be true and accurate copies from the original in his possession, and to contain the entire entries or subject matters in reference to which such transcripts are required, shall be evidence.

57. All copies of any books, papers, entries and proceedings in the custody of the keeper of the records of the court of chancery certified under his seal of office, shall be evidence.

58. Copies of any record in the custody of any of the clerks of the courts of law or equity or Register of Wills, certified by such clerk or register, under the seal of his office, shall be evidence; and all judgments and decrees, deeds, and other papers and proceedings required by law to be recorded, shall be considered records within the meaning of this section.

59. Copies of judgments decrees or other judicial proceedings not required to be recorded made by any of the clerks from the papers, docket entries and minutes of the court certified by such clerk under the seal of his office, shall be evidence.