

16. Jurors shall be entitled to such pay as is allowed by the local laws of the several counties and the city of Baltimore, but where no pay is fixed by local law, each juror shall receive one dollar and fifty cents a day for each day he shall attend as juror.

17. In all cases of forcible entry and detainer which jurors shall be summoned to try, each juror shall be entitled to the sum of one dollar for his services per day, to be taxed in the costs by the justices, and any juror who being summoned shall fail to attend on a case of forcible entry and detainer, shall be liable to attachment and fine, in the discretion of the justices to whom the summons is returned, not exceeding ten dollars.

18. The grand jury shall at each term of the court visit the jail and inquire into its condition, the manner in which it is kept and the treatment of the prisoners, and report the same to the court.

ARTICLE LI.

Justices of the Peace.

SEC. 1. Every justice of the peace shall, within thirty days after his commission shall have been received in the clerk's office of the county or city, take and subscribe the oaths and declaration prescribed by the Constitution; and upon his failure to do so, his office shall be deemed vacant.

2. No person commissioned as a justice of the peace shall act as such before he has taken the oaths and made the declaration required by law; and every person violating this section shall, for each offence, forfeit and pay the sum of forty dollars.

3. If any justice of the peace, having qualified as such, shall accept of any office under the government of the United States, and shall still act as justice of the peace, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of forty dollars.

4. For each new election district that may be formed and established in the several counties, and for each additional ward that may be created in the city of Baltimore, there shall be
