

therein as the court may think proper to have the same fairly tried in court, in the same manner as if it had never been referred.

6. In every case where an award shall be made upon such reference, the party in whose favor the award shall be given shall cause a copy thereof to be delivered to the adverse party, or his attorney, at least three days before judgment is moved for thereon, and the clerk shall not enter judgment upon any award returned without a motion to, and direction from the court, and the court shall always have satisfactory proof by the parties' own oath, or otherwise, that a copy has been delivered to the adverse party or his attorney, before judgment shall be directed to be entered thereon.

7. The several Orphans' Courts of this State shall have power, with the consent of both parties, to be entered on their proceedings, to arbitrate between a claimant and an executor or administrator, or between an executor and a person against whom he has a claim, or the dispute may by the parties be referred to any person or persons approved by the Orphans' Court.

8. No award made under an order of the Orphans' Court returned to said court, shall be confirmed until after notice of the award shall have been given to the parties to the reference or their representatives, and any party may file exceptions, or show cause against the award, upon any ground on the face of it or extrinsic thereto, and the court may confirm or reject the same and remand the case to the referees for a new award, or appoint new referees.

9. The Orphans' Court may make such rules respecting the notice to be given in cases of awards and exceptions, and showing cause and a hearing in the premises, as they deem reasonable.
